SUPERVISOR BIDDLE EXPRESSES CONDOLENCES FOR PREGNANT VICTIM

Calls on community action!

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle Sr. is very saddened by the tragic murder of that occurred in Milwaukee early Sunday morning.

Sharon Staples, who was 34 years old, was walking on the city's north side with her 13 year old son when she was killed for refusing to give up her purse. She was 4 months pregnant.

"I want to extend my hand to the family of the victim of this senseless violent crime," said Supervisor Biddle. "My hope and prayer is that the community is able to pull together and put an end to foolishness such as this. The time is now."

The suspects have not yet been caught but police are asking anyone with any leads to please call the Milwaukee Police Department at (414) 935-7360.

A benefit account for Sharon Staples has been set up at Waukesha State Bank. Monetary donations can be dropped off at any Waukesha State Bank, or can be mailed to:
